

THEMELESS MONDAY #600

Brendan Emmett Quigley (www.brendanemmettquigley.com)

ACROSS

1. Sports Illustrated's 2011 Sportsman of the Year, colloquially
7. Dime, in the NBA
13. Topsy person's admission
15. Superior
16. Come-on to shopaholics
17. Playgroup participant
18. It erupted on October 16, 1969
20. Architect who created the Women's Table in front of Yale's Sterling Memorial Library
21. Quick pull
22. Govt. security
23. Verbal ____ ("The Usual Suspects" suspect)
24. Represents creatively
26. Car whose name comes from Old High German word meaning "reward"
27. Lab infestation?
28. Adamant refusal
29. Lip covering
30. Beer and pizza, e.g.
31. Bit of upward mobility?
32. Rapper also known as Cornrow Kenny
33. See 10-Down
34. Bank vault feature
37. Old Motorola flip phone
38. "Octavius," in Octavius Caesar
39. They're tapped in music class
41. "I hear ya barking, big dog"
42. Like some nonlinear scales in mathematics
44. Slangy intensifier
46. Accept, as business conditions
47. Components of irises
48. Jazz saxophonist Wayne
49. Building with a minaret
50. Small scrap

DOWN

1. "____ Strut" (1969 hit by the Meters)
2. Native Nebraskans
3. When some people open a lot of doors
4. Dead giveaway in a haunted house
5. Losers of the Battle of Châlons
6. Most convoluted
7. Make the case for
8. Appear
9. QB Darnold
10. Residents of 33-Across
11. Fix deeply
12. Starbucks order
14. December holidays: Var.
15. Arabs' movements
19. Nails
23. They might get the lower bunk
25. Novelist Mario Vargas ____
26. Closing words in some stories
28. Go time?
29. Ashcroft's successor as Attorney General
30. Security equipment
31. Foil the villain's plan, say
32. Jorge Chávez airport city
33. Supermodel Ashley
34. Senators' wear
35. They've got long tails
36. "The Irishman" costar
38. Exploding stars
40. Make one's point?
42. Real stunner
43. Something dropped in some pranks
45. Latin abbr. meaning "he speaks"

