

ACROSS

1. Orange option
8. Dive into, enthusiastically
14. Turn off, in a big way
16. Figure on a mortgage loan
17. Molecules with two oxygen atoms
18. Curtain fabrics
19. Quarterly earnings report fig.
20. Blackhawks town, briefly
22. Grime
23. "Oh, puhleeze"
28. Bug experts?: Abbr.
29. Up until
30. Any second now
31. Hard to please?
33. Brass ____ (MIT class ring)
34. Hulu selection
35. Like hawks, e.g.
36. Carribean-themed dance band that describes their music as "junkanoo"
38. Big name in pasta
39. Some express trains
40. ____ chef
41. ____ drop (emphatic conclusion to a showstopping performance)
42. Provides outfits for
43. New York Times executive editor Baquet
44. Muddled thoughts
45. Back-and-forth direction
46. "Things Can Only Get Better" singer
49. Melons
51. Stereotypical big-government type
52. Drops, informally
53. Call to the quarterback
55. Group whose opinions are so much better than yours, obviously
60. Moving art?
61. Ocean hunter with winglike appendages
62. In a fair way
63. Chained

DOWN

1. Bummed
2. Activist Ayaan Hirsi ____
3. Hector Salamanca's nickname on "Breaking Bad"

©2015

4. Risqué Prince single with the repeated line "shaking that ass"
5. Combine
6. Desperate scrambles
7. Sampled vanilla fudge, say
8. Nero's great-great-grandmother
9. Brian who said "I don't really have a musical identity outside of studios"
10. It can make you see things
11. She's got the beat
12. Give a less foreign-sounding name at Ellis Island, e.g.
13. Women with wills
15. It's money in the bank
21. Rustic layer
23. Concluding minutes of a blowout
24. Science fiction author whose books were classified in 9 of the 10 major categories in the Dewey Decimal system
25. Regulars at showers
26. Big asset
27. Parts of typeface extensions
32. "Can't We Talk About Something More Pleasant?" author Chast
34. Big moneymaker
35. Key on the bottom of a cell
37. Mass apparel
38. Engine's sound
40. Navy engineer
43. Weaver's offense: Abbr.
44. "Take Me To Church" singer
47. "To the Point" host Warren
48. "The Expendables" star
50. Turn around
54. Pipe-fitter's union?
56. "Love Story" composer
57. Sign often associated with a buzz
58. It can come in a spray
59. Structure: Abbr.